Wanted: System of Signposts for County Roads

This article is directed to Nevada county as well as Hempstead. What both counties need is a complete system of signposts to direct travelers unfamiliar with the vagaries of rural roads.

Some years ago the Hope Lions club tackled a similar problem in the City of Hope. Many city streets were unmarked but still more remained anonymous. The Lions adopted street-marking as a project, put up metal posts and installed street name-plates—and this system stands today with everlasting credit to Hope Lions club.

Some luncheon club, or the civic clubs acting in concert, with co-operation by farm groups, should launch a similar program from both Hope and Prescott to mark all rural roads in the two counties. Business houses in the two towns ought to be willing to make a cash contribution—and, upon request, Star Publishing Co. will head the lists in both counties.

The Star has always stood for good roads, rural electricity and telephone service; and now as a good-neighbor policy we suggest the marking of county roads.

At least once a week I escape from the crowded city traffic and venture down some rural road, curious about where it will lead. Over the years I have learned which way to turn on encountering an unnamed fork in Hempstead or Nevada counties. Last Sunday furnished a good example.

I took the middle road at Rocky Mound and headed due East, ran out of pavement, passed two forks on the gravel, and hit my target, paved State 53 (Prescott-Buckner road). State 53 merged with paved State 19 and led me into Prescott. I checked the weekly Nevada County Picayune office but didn't find Editor Larry Wahlquist, so drove back to Hope on U.S. 67. It was a pleasant jaunt, I admiring the new country homes along the route. But had I not known which of two forks to take the trip would have been confused. In fact, the first time I tried this excursion I made a wrong turn and dead-ended in the barnyard of some big Nevada county cattle ranch. Rural road signs would have helped.

Another fine local trip is to go south to Patmos, turn at the school onto State 355, which is gravel, and proceed east to Falcon, Nevada county, and return by way of paved State 19 to Bodcaw, and paved State 32 to Shower Springs and Hope.

This route has one great attraction, a slow movement through the magnificent Bodcaw Creek bottoms. The road is well marked all the way.

Rehearsal for rock-spiritual

A youth choir of the First Baptist Church will present a rock-spiritual, "The Carpenter," at 7 p.m. Sunday at the church. The musical, which will be accompanied by electric guitars, drums, an organ, piano and other instruments, was written by Otis Skillings and Harold Myra, and concerns

"social problems of today and one's commitment to Christ," according to director Jim Hart. Sixty-five young people make up the choir, and they have been rehearsing the songs for more than four months. The public has been invited to attend.

Eagleton says story is a 'damnable' lie

By BROOKS JACKSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sen. Thomas F. Eagleton says accusations by columnist Jack Anderson that he has a record of drunken driving are a "damnable lie" and probably will hurt him.

Eagleton also said he is "doubly determined" to remain on the Democratic ticket as the vice presidential candidate and called Anderson's charges a "low blow."

Eagleton flatly denied a report by Anderson that photostatic records show the Missouri senator was arrested a half-dozen times for drunken or reckless driving.

Anderson made the allegation in a radio broadcast Thursday. The columnist told The Associated Press that he did not have the records himself but learned about them from a "high Missouri official." A check by The AP turned up some past speeding citations in Eagleton's name, but no trace of any arrest for drunken or reckless driving.

Eagleton angrily told a news conference Thursday in Honolulu that he had never been arrested for drunken or reckless driving, and that Anderson's report appeared to him to be a politically motivated attempt to drive him off the Democratic ticket.

In an interview while flying here from Hawaii, Eagleton underscored his newly strengthened resolve to stay on as running mate of Sen. George McGovern.

"I want to pursue this vice presidency with the greatest degree of determination that I possibly can," Eagleton said.

Some newspapers and Democratic politicians have said Eagleton should step aside because of his admission Tuesday that he had voluntarily undergone psychiatric treatment and shock therapy for "nervous exhaustion and fatigue" and that he hadn't told McGovern about this until after the Democratic National Convention.

In an interview, Eagleton called Anderson's charge a "low blow." He said he thought it would hurt him because denials and refutations don't always catch up with accusations even when the charges are false.

He said he thought the worst part of the Anderson story would be its possible effect on his relations with his wife and children and on his reputation as a man.

Eagleton said he had talked to McGovern by telephone twice Thursday after the Anderson charge surfaced in the columnist's radio broadcast. Eagleton said McGovern expressed full confidence in him and told him not to worry.

McGovern, meanwhile, declined to comment on his conversation with Eagleton, saying he had "nothing further to add" to his previously expressed public support for his running mate.

McGovern also told aides that he wanted no further comment on the matter by anyone connected with the campaign, other than Eagleton or himself.

Train blocks streets

The entire northeast section of Hope was isolated for vehicular traffic for about 15 minutes this morning due to a lengthy Missouri-Pacific train blocking several streets.

From about 9:15 to 9:30 a.m., the train blocked all track crossings from the brickyards to North Walnut; the train used the spur track to Nashville.

Persons coming to town on State Highway 29 had to go to Interstate-30 and proceed to the State Highway 4 intersection and then return to Hope.

Sen. Allen Ellender dead at 81

WASHINGTON (AP) — Allen J. Ellender, the country lawyer who graduated from Huey Long's storied brand of Louisiana politics to become dean of the U.S. Senate, is dead at 81.

A heart attack felled the Senate president pro tempore at Bethesda Naval Hospital at 7:30 p.m. Thursday after he had interrupted his home-state campaign for a seventh term to be present for a Senate vote on an agriculture appropriations bill.

As federal flags dipped to half-staff, praise rose quickly for the man whose stamp long marked the Senate Agriculture Committee and more recently the pivotal Appropriations Committee as its chairman.

He was "a splendid American" who left "a deep imprint on the legislative history of this century," said President Nixon.

To Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, Ellender was "one of the most respected and distinguished members of the United States Senate, a man who combined dignity and simplicity. He was revered on both sides of the aisle."

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield called a caucus today for Democrats to select a president pro tempore to succeed the man he called "a unique senator. He was a workhorse."

His entry in the Senate was marked by support of Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal against the conservatives of that day, but he himself came to be marked as a fiscal and social conservative whose opposition to civil-rights measures was sharp and constant.

He left a large imprint on farm legislation and was the author of the original School Lunch Act.

There was no immediate word on funeral arrangements for the senator, who is survived by a son, Dr. Allen J. Ellender Jr., and seven grandchildren.

McClellan praises Ellender

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., described Sen. Allen Ellender of Louisiana, who died Thursday, as a dedicated public servant who had strong convictions.

McClellan said in a telephone interview that he had "great respect" for Ellender and that his death "comes as a great surprise. I've lost a friend."

"He had high ideals and principles," McClellan said. "I think he was a great public servant. I regret his death and send my condolences to all of his family."

The death threw Louisiana Democrats into an election limbo.

Ellender, facing the toughest challenge of his 34-year Senate career, had broken a string of campaign appearances Thursday morning to catch an 11 a.m. flight to Washington for the Senate vote. He complained of stomach pains which worsened during the trip. By 4 p.m., he was not on the Senate floor, but visiting the congressional physician and complaining about chest pains.

Before the evening was out, the longevity that brought him success in the Senate, where time is measured in decades and decades mark power, had also given out.

The Senate was in session and received word of the death from Sen. Russell B. Long, who was 17 years old when his father, Sen. Huey Long, was cut down by assassin's bullets at the state Capitol.

Ellender took Huey's Senate seat a year later.

Ellender was widowed in 1949 and devoted most of his time to the Senate. His time outside its halls was notably quiet.

Eastland succeeds Ellender

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. James O. Eastland, conservative Mississippi Democrat, was elected president pro tempore of the Senate today, succeeding Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana.

The election of Eastland, 67, was by voice vote at the start of the day's Senate session following Ellender's death of a heart attack last night.

Senate Democrats designated Eastland, as their senior member, at a party caucus shortly before the Senate met.

The resolution nominating Eastland was offered by Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana.

Nixon counterattacks

Propaganda dupes critics, Nixon claims

WASHINGTON (AP) — Counterattacking in the war of words over U.S. bombing, President Nixon says his critics have been duped by Hanoi's propaganda and should recognize that he has held in check "the great power that could finish off North Vietnam in an afternoon."

He also told a news conference Thursday that congressmen who vote for end-the-war resolutions are signaling the communists to stall in peace talks at a time when "the chance for a negotiated settlement is better ... than it has ever been."

The President stopped short of denying that any U.S. bombs had damaged North Vietnam's dikes and dams, but singled out United Nations Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim for seizing "upon this enemy-inspired propaganda which has taken in many well-intentioned and naive people."

Waldheim said this week he had received information that the dikes had been damaged by U.S. warplanes and appealed for a halt in the bombing.

The State Department said Wednesday there had been slight and unintentional damage to the installations, and Nixon said Thursday "if damage did occur ... we are making every possible effort to see that it will not occur again."

As he faced reporters in his Oval Office, Nixon plunged into a spirited defense of his Vietnam policies, setting the stage for continuing debate in an election campaign he predicted would be "close ... hard-fought ... right down to the wire."

He declined to discuss the disclosure of Democratic vice-presidential nominee Thomas Eagleton's past psychiatric treatment, saying he would not "interject myself into that problem" and that he would not campaign on personalities.

"The issues that divide the opposite side and this administration are so wide—in fact, the clearest choice in this century—that we must campaign on the issues," he said.

One major campaign issue is Vietnam, and Nixon indirectly took Democratic nominee George McGovern to task for saying he would halt the bombing immediately and bring all U.S. troops and prisoners of war home within 90 days—proposals which Republicans say hurt U.S. peace efforts.

"The fastest way to end the war and the best way to end it is through negotiation," the President said.

Nixon said U.S. negotiators have made "a very fair offer" to end the war, but that the enemy is hearing Congress say "in effect, 'We will give you what you want regardless of what the President has offered, why not wait?'"

The Senate amended a foreign-aid bill Monday to cut off Vietnam funds within four months if war prisoners were released, then killed the entire bill. On Tuesday, the House drew by Oct. 1 subject to prisoner release, a limited cease-fire, and an accounting of missing GIs.

More troops into Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Britain began moving 4,000 more troops to Northern Ireland today as part of a determined new attempt to crack down on gunmen of the Irish Republican Army.

The reinforcements will boost the army's strength in the province to 21,000 men, a record level, and include three infantry battalions from Germany.

The reinforcements are Britain's response to the IRA's coordinated bomb attack on Belfast last week that killed nine persons and injured 130.

Observers believe the army and Britain's administrator in Northern Ireland, William Whitelaw, may be planning more intensive action than the search-and-arrest operations which followed the Belfast bombings.

The army is known to have concentrated armor in the vicinity of Londonderry, arousing speculation that an assault may be contemplated on the IRA stronghold in the Bogside and Creggan quarters known as "Free Derry."

The militant Protestant Ulster Defense Association said it had cancelled a planned blockade of fuel oil and electricity to "Free Derry" because Protestants in the area would also have been affected.

Assassins killed another man in Belfast Thursday night, raising the confirmed toll in three years of religious warfare in Northern Ireland to 476. He was a 47-year-old Catholic found hooded and shot through the head in the Protestant Sandy Row district.

Fire swept through a big department store on Belfast's Royal Avenue during the night and police blamed arsonists. Two men were rescued from the roof of the building, and no casualties were reported.

The army reported 46 shooting incidents in Belfast — 29 involving soldiers — and eight in Londonderry during the night. Two soldiers were slightly hurt, and the troops claimed they hit three gunmen.

Four persons were hospitalized after exchanges of gunfire in which the army was not involved, and troops captured three men after a volley of shots was fired from a van at bystanders.

In the early hours, two bombs exploded within minutes of each other in Londonderry, one of them damaging offices of the Londonderry Development Commission. No casualties were reported.

Rural aid bill close to passage

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is a step away from passing a rural renewal bill offering America's ailing countryside communities an injection of economic aid.

Ending the bickering over compromises reached by Senate-House conferees in a bid to get a bill passed this year, the House voted Thursday to accept proposals settling 52 disputes.

This intricate agreement, putting together a rural-development program authorizing about $500 million a year in new grant funds and extensively expanding loan authority, was approved intact after the bill's supporters survived a major parliamentary challenge.

In the key test, rural-development advocates headed by Agriculture Committee Chairman W. R. Poage, D-Tex., won 214 to 162 over a coalition guided by Government Operations Committee Chairman Chet Holifield, D-Calif., and Rep. John B. Anderson, R-Ill.

Holifield objected to the bill's provisions empowering the Agriculture secretary to coordinate rural-development activity. He claimed that would encroach on the jurisdiction of his committee which has approved its own bill to reorganize government community-development programs.

Anderson joined in a call for a separate vote on disputed provisions of the compromise, a maneuver which could not take place under terms of the floor-action plan backed by Poage.

Poage promptly rallied the bill's backers behind an argument that a separate vote and the potential of more conferee consideration could kill the legislation.

Poage won with 172 Democrats and 42 Republicans favoring the take-it-or-leave-it approach. Holifield and Anderson attracted 121 Republicans and 41 Democrats to their camp.

Then, the House passed the bill by 339 to 36 and the measure was sent to the Senate.

Aimed at sparking economic growth of rural America and eventually helping lure people away from crowded cities, the bill would create a range of programs to improve countryside living conditions.

Grants would go for such things as pollution abatement and development of industrial centers providing jobs for the unemployed. The Farmers Home Administration could make loans to small business and industry as part of an industrial-parks program. The legislation would cover towns of up to 10,000 population, with industrial loans available to cities of up to 50,000.

Socialite kidnapped

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — The socialite wife of H.C. Piper Jr., millionaire head of a brokerage and investment firm, has been kidnapped from her home, the FBI says. Piper has declined to say how much ransom is being demanded.

"When they get in touch with me, I certainly plan to cooperate in any way they want," the 54-year-old Piper said a few hours after his wife, Virginia, was kidnapped Thursday.

Piper, board chairman of Piper, Jaffray & Hopwood, Inc., said the two kidnapers left a ransom note but he declined to reveal how much money they wanted. "I just can't tell you that because it would very possibly jeopardize Mrs. Piper's chances. It would be very unwise. They said they would get in touch again."

The FBI, which was called into the case, refused to comment on a news broadcast by a Minneapolis television station which said the ransom demanded was rumored to be $1 million.

Reports of the death of Lin Piao confirmed

ALGIERS (AP) — The Chinese Embassy today confirmed long persistent reports that Lin Piao, once Chairman Mao Tse-tung's political heir, died last year in a plane crash, fleeing to the Soviet Union after an unsuccessful plot to assassinate Mao.

It was the first official explanation of Lin's disappearance from public view last year. It was contained in a statement made to the Algerian government newspaper El Moudjahid.

The Peking correspondent of a Canadian newspaper, the Toronto Globe and Mail, reported Thursday that Mao had told two recent foreign visitors — Prime Minister Sirimavo Bandaranaike of Ceylon and Foreign Minister Maurice Schumann of France — of Lin's plot against him and his death.

The Chinese Embassy's statement said:

"Lin Piao died Sept. 13, 1971. The Lin Piao affair is a reflection of the battle between two lines which was taking place within the party for a long time. Lin Piao committed repeated errors and Chairman Mao Tse-tung fought many battles against him."

"He indulged in antiparty activities and in a planned and premeditated way with a clearly determined program with the goal of surging the leadership of the party, the government and the army. Chairman Mao Tse-tung unmasked his plot and aborted his maneuvers. Chairman Mao Tse-tung made efforts to rehabilitate him. But Lin Piao did not change his perverse nature one iota. He attempted a coup d'etat and sought to assassinate

Chairman Mao Tse-tung. "His plot was foiled and he fled on Sept. 12 toward the Soviet Union in an aircraft which crashed in the People's Republic of Mongolia."

Peking reported the crash of a jetliner in Mongolia last Sept. 13, and there have been persistent reports that Lin died in the crash. But there has never been any confirmation of this.

Lin disappeared from view, and his name has not been mentioned officially since June 3, 1971.

Tail engine drops off of DC-10

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The tail engine of a Continental Airlines DC10 that had just left Los Angeles, fell off Thursday, dropping nearly a ton of smoking hot metal on Hollywood and Beverly Hills. No one was hit by the debris and the plane landed safely on its remaining two engines.

One 500-pound piece of the engine plunged into the front lawn of a Beverly Hills home and 40 to 50 pieces were scattered over a densely populated area about with a four-mile radius, police said.

Capt. Robert Glau, the pilot of the Chicago-bound jet, Flight 902 with 123 persons aboard, lifted the plane off from Los Angeles International Airport at 2 p.m. The engine began shedding parts about 10 minutes later.

No injuries were reported on the plane or on the ground and there were no reports of damage to structures on the ground.

One witness, Curtis Howard, a sheriff's deputy, said he looked up at the plane after he heard a sound like a sonic boom.

"Smoke and flames were coming from the rear of the plane," he said. "I saw a number of large pieces fall."

Engine pieces slamming to earth sounded "like two-car crashes," said Bernie Richards, a resident of Beverly Hills. One piece tore through a tree and narrowly missed a car parked in his driveway, he said.

One passenger, Bruce Marks, 19, of Oaklawn, Ill., said "the whole right side of the plane began to shake" when the trouble started but the passengers remained calm.

Another passenger, Donna Cristy, 39, of Capistrano Beach, Calif., said, "It wasn't all that bad. No one would have dreamed an engine had fallen off. I've been on bumpier flights to San Francisco."

Officials said they had no immediate idea of what happened to the engine. Continental workmen wheeled the damaged airliner into a maintenance hangar after the passengers had disembarked.

English workers strike

LONDON (AP) — A national dock strike thrust Britain into a new bout of labor turmoil today.

Prime Minister Edward Heath, beleaguered by union bitterness that has been aroused by his antistrike law, was expected to declare the second state of emergency this year to keep the nation's life-lines open.

The strike is in effect a continuation — with official union approval — of the dockers' wildcat walkout last Friday to protest the jailing of five picketing comrades. Representatives of the nation's 42,000 longshoremen ordered the men to stay out after rejecting a union-management plan to compensate and relocate dock workers displaced by the increasing use of containers.

Was His Marriage Her Fault?

DEAR HELEN:

I'm still in love with a man who had to rush into marriage with a young girl recently because she was pregnant. He's 28, she is 17, and there was pressure by her parents in addition to his feeling he had to "do the right thing."

Please don't condemn him until you hear all the story, for it may have been my fault too. You see, we (rather I) decided to "wait" or marriage which had to wait for me to finish college—or so I thought. I'm 22.

Being human—and deprived—and yes, chased, by this other girl who was terribly in love with him, he took what was offered while still very much in love with me. I couldn't understand a man's needs back then, when it happened, and so I guess I, too, pushed him into the wrong marriage because I told him I never wanted to see him again. I couldn't see how he could care for one woman and have an affair with someone else, but I've matured a lot in seven months of thinking, and now I don't blame him any more than I blame myself.

Last week he called to tell me his wife and baby are back with her parents and she is getting a Nevada divorce. He wants to see me.

I'm getting all kinds of advice: half my friends think he's a bad risk and the other half think I should give this romance another try. Should I chance it?

—SCARED

DEAR SCARED:

If you don't "chance it" you'll always wonder about what might have been. I'd say—see him, but don't go overboard until you really look at him from all angles. You may discover your new maturity has left an old romance behind. —H.

PERSONAL TO "HATE THEM ALL!":

You've got enough hang-ups to fill a closet—and partially, no doubt, with skeletons! Join the 20th century, my friend. Really, it isn't as frightening as the old-time repression and secrecy that gave you all those weird ideas. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

Sorry, but I disagree with your answer to "Chain Gang," who said his fifth-grade teacher treated her students like babies. (Called them "little ladies and gentlemen", lined them up to march to and from class and to assembly, read them fairytales, insisted on total quiet, etc. —H.)

A meat pie for summer taste

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

A meat pie fits the vacation eating schedule quite well and offers a variation on broiled hamburgers or frankfurters. A cheese and tomato beef pie also helps stretch the budget. For those who want a shortcut in making this piecrust, use a frozen pastry shell. Into this goes a mixture of lean ground beef, tomato soup, herbs, onion and green pepper topped with wedges of tomato and grated Cheddar cheese. Serve with a salad and fresh fruit for dessert.

CHEESE-TOMATO BEEF PIE

- 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- 1 pound lean ground beef chuck
- 1 (10 1/2-ounce) can

Cheese tomato beef pie is attractive and nutritious summer dish.

Mrs. Griffis is shower honoree

A pink-and-blue shower for Mrs. Larry Griffis was given Monday, July 24 in the home of Mrs. M.H. Peebles with co-hostesses, Mesdames Charles Grose, Don Gilbert, Jessie Tullis, Otis Walden, Bennett Wood, Doyle Shields and Lahroy Spates.

Pink and white snapdragons encircled a stork for the focal point of interest, and baby booties decorated the petits fours which were served with Hawaiian punch to 40. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Lee Hicks, Mrs. Horace Ellen, Mrs. Tommy McCorkle, all of Columbus, and Mrs. Virgil Sanders of Saratoga.

The honoree received many pretty and useful gifts for herself and expected baby.

Ladies host shower for Gloria Martin

Two miscellaneous showers for Miss Gloria Martin, bride-elect of Byron Cunningham, were given earlier this month. On July 7 in the Fellowship Hall of the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church the first of these parties was held with members of the Tina Ambassador Sunday School Class and other friends as hostesses.

Miss Martin wore an orange knit dress and had a corsage of champagne carnations. Her wedding colors, chocolate brown, orange and gold, decorated the table where frosted lemon punch, petits fours, nuts and mints were served to 40 guests.

The Experiment Station Clubhouse was the site for a party on July 8 with 40 members of the 5th and Grady Church of Christ enjoying a

Colors for fall will be bright

PARIS (AP) — Andre Courreges, the man who designs "second skins" for women, used to like his body stockings in heavy ribbed wool. Now they are sheer.

His collection for fall and winter, shown today, was pure Courreges. This means vinyl and fake fur, visors and chunky boots, and the Courreges colors — orange, white, navy and yellow.

The look this season is wearable. Slightly flaring dresses have short sleeves and high waists. So do the belted coats, even the one in orange mink.

Courreges is very proud indeed of his new square armhole, which fits into the coat "like a puzzle piece."

Skirts, sometimes soaring to three inches above the knee, are A-line and slit up the front. In gray flannel or wool, they go with ribbed T-shirts and over-the-knee socks sticking out of vinyl boots. The "in" color for these is pink.

Golf tourney winners

Four members of the Hope Ladies Golf Association went to Prescott Thursday, July 27, played in a tournament at the Prescott Country Club, and each one of the Hope players brought home a prize.

The winners were: Low Net, 1st, Mrs. Henry Seamans, and 2nd, Mrs. Jim Smith and Mrs. Earl Lockett (tie); Low Putts, Mrs. Emmett Wassell.

Mets split double with Pirates

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Yogi Berra likes to think fondly of his New York Mets' tumultuous 1969 season. But Pittsburgh's Bill Virdon, glancing back over his shoulder, is more concerned with the more negative aspects of baseball's recent history.

"We've still got a long way to go and anything can happen," Yogi said Thursday night after the Mets split a two-night doubleheader with the Pirates to remain 5½ games back of the front-running Bucs in the National League's East Division.

"I remember in '69 we were 9½ games out in August and we ended up winning it," the Mets' manager said. "We've got eight more games with them," he said of the Pirates, "so we'll get our chances."

For a couple of hours, the Mets were within 4½ games of the top, thanks to Jon Matlack, who pitched a four-hitter, and Wayne Garrett, whose 10th-inning sacrifice fly gave them a 1-0 victory in the opener.

But a few hours after that, Pittsburgh was back where it had been before the night's action got under way as Willie Stargell and Jackie Hernandez drove in two runs apiece, leading the way to a 7-5 triumph in the finale.

Elsewhere around the National League, the Chicago Cubs split a pair with Philadelphia, winning 4-0 before the Phils took the nightcap 3-2, Cincinnati clubbed San Diego 8-2, Los Angeles beat Houston 6-3, St. Louis mauled Montreal 8-2 and San Francisco's game at Atlanta was rained out.

In the American League, Detroit swept Milwaukee 3-2 and 8-5, the Chicago White Sox beat Kansas City 7-3 in a twinbill opener before losing 3-0, the New York Yankees defeated Boston 6-2, Cleveland edged Baltimore 4-3, California silenced Texas 5-0 and Oakland nipped Minnesota 4-3.

Virdon, who inherited a World Championship club when former manager Danny Murtaugh retired after the '71 season, was hardly optimistic when talking about the Pirates' lead.

Hope loses tourney bid

The Hope Junior American Legion was defeated by a score of 14 to 8 by Benton, for their second loss and elimination from the District Tournament.

Benton started off quickly and Hope could never catch up. Benton scored four runs in the first, five in the second, one in the third, one in the sixth, and three in the seventh. Benton had 17 hits and six walks.

Hope scored eight runs on eight hits and seven walks.

Hope winds up their season with a 17-8 win-loss record. The team was sponsored by Young American Homes and coached by Larry Walker.

Angels blank Rangers

ANAHEIM (AP) — Fireballing Nolan Ryan of the California Angels held Texas hitless until Larry Bittner doubled with two out in the eighth inning and finished with a two-hit 5-0 victory over the Rangers Thursday night.

The victory, embroidered by 14 strikeouts which gave him the American League lead with 170, was Ryan's 12th of the year and his sixth shutout.

"Look at the Phillies in '64," he said. "They were seven games ahead with 10 games to go and they lost it."

Matlack, who had won only one game in his last three starts, despite yielding just one earned run in that stretch, was in a buoyant mood. "We won the ball game and I was around at the finish. That's what counts," he said after raising his record to 10-5.

He won it because Cleon Jones led off the 10th against Pirate starter Nelson Briles with a double, took third on Ed Kranepool's bunt single and scored on Garrett's fly ball.

But the second game belonged to the Bucs, who amassed a 7-0 lead before Duff Dyer hit a three-run homer and Teddy Martinez had a two-run single.

Stargell's 20th home run gave them their first two runs and Hernandez doubled and singled for two more. A Jerry Koosman wild pitch and Vic Davalillo's infield single provided two more runs.

Whitey Lockman, debuting as the Cubs' manager following Leo Durocher's resignation, got off to a rousing start as Ferguson Jenkins fired a one-hitter, allowing only Willie Montanez' looping double to center in the fourth inning of the opener.

Aaron, Coody share golf lead

LIGONIER, Pa. (AP) — Veterans Tommy Aaron and Charles Coody had the lead, Arnold Palmer had a satisfied look and Bert Yancey had a warning going into today's second round in the $200,000 Professional Golfers Association National Team championship.

"If we played that good with a double bogey, I think we're going to rip it up," Yancey said after he and partner Tom Weiskopf posted an eight-under-par 63 despite a double bogey 6-in Thursday's first round.

"We're going to be tough," said Yancey, winner of the American Golf Classic, last stop on the tour.

Aaron, a drawing veteran of 12 years on the pro tour, and Coody, a former Masters champion now in his 10th season, blended their talents almost perfectly for a leading 62 in the opening round of this 72-hole competition in which scoring is based on the better ball of each two-man team.

Palmer, meanwhile, got help on at least four holes from youthful partner Jack Lewis who was rung in at the last minute for Jack Nicklaus. Nicklaus, the dominant figure in the game this season, had combined with Palmer to win the last two team titles on the 7-045-yard, par 71 Laurel Valley Golf Club course but had to withdraw after undergoing minor surgery on his infected right index finger Tuesday.

"He did fine, just fine," Palmer, said of his partner after he and Lewis, among the 25-year-old who went to Wake Forest on an Arnold Palmer scholarship, had posted a 66, five under par. They were among the 10 teams tied for fifth and very much in contention.

Outsiders Steve Oppermann and teaching pro Chuck Rotar took third with a late-finishing 64 while Alabama neighbors Hubert Green and Mac McLendon were alone at 65.

Among the big bunch tied with Palmer and Lewis at 66 were brothers Dave and Mike Hill and the uncle-nephew team of Sam and J.C. Snead. Former champions Bobby Nichols and George Archer, along with South African Gary Player and Bob Rosburg were in another large group at 67.

But British Open champ Lee Trevino and former PGA titleholder Ray Floyd, among the favorites when Nicklaus had to pull out, had their problems. They could do no better than match par 71.

Oakland blanks Rangers 5-0

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Nolan Ryan and Stan Bahnsen, two pitchers who were sent packing by New York teams last winter, came within four outs of baseball immortality Thursday night but had to settle for one victory and one defeat.

Ryan, California's smoke-throwing fast-baller, lost his no-hit bid on Larry Bittner's two-out double in the eighth inning and finished with a two-hit, 14-strikeout 5-0 triumph over the Texas Rangers.

Bahnsen was locked in a scoreless struggle with Kansas City's Roger Nelson until the eighth when a walk and two-out singles by Nelson, Cookie Rojas and Steve Hovley sparked the Royals to a 3-0 decision over Chicago in the second game of a doubleheader. The White Sox took the opener 7-3.

Elsewhere, Detroit took two from Milwaukee 3-2 and 8-5, Cleveland edged Baltimore 4-3, Oakland nipped Minnesota 4-3 and the New York Yankees downed Boston 6-2.

In the National League, the New York Mets shaded Pittsburgh 1-0 in 10 innings but the Pirates bounced back to take the nightcap 7-5, the Chicago Cubs blanked Philadelphia 4-0 and the Phillies won the second game 3-2. St. Louis whipped Montreal 8-2, Cincinnati trounced San Diego 8-2, Los Angeles best Houston 6-3 and San Francisco and Atlanta were rained out.

Ex-Met Ryan, hit hard in three straight losses on the road, boosted his record to 9-2 in friendly Anaheim Stadium.

"It was the first time in my life I felt I had a shot at a no-hitter," he said. "It was the longest I've ever gone without allowing a hit."

The Angels provided all the offense Ryan needed in the first inning when Billy Parker, just up from the minors, tagged loser Mike Paul for a two-run single. Ryan doubled across the final run in the seventh.

Dick Allen smashed his 23rd and 24th home runs in Chicago's first-game triumph over Kansas City, tying Cincinnati's Johnny Bench for the major league lead and helping Wilbur Wood to his 16th victory despite a two-run homer by Hovley in the first inning.

While ex-Yankee Bahnsen was holding the Royals hitless for seven innings in the nightcap, his teammates threatened three times but failed to score. With two out in the eighth and a runner on first, Nelson bounced a single past third baseman Ed Spiezio for KC's first hit and Rojas and Hovley followed with run-scoring singles, chasing Bahnsen.

The Tigers had to come from behind in both games to stretch their lead in the AL East to 2½ games over Baltimore. Trailing 1-0 and held to one hit for eight innings by Bill Parsons in the opener, they took advantage of an error by Milwaukee third baseman Mike Ferraro. With two out, Willie Horton singled and Norm Cash walloped his 19th home run.

Detroit wiped out a 4-0 deficit with four runs in the third inning of the nightcap, then came from behind once again with four more in the eighth, highlighted by Eddie Brinkman's two-run tie-breaking single.

Cleveland took a 2-0 lead against Baltimore's Pat Dobson in the first inning on John Lowenstein's bases-loaded single but trailed 3-2 in the ninth. With one out, though, Frank Duffy singled and pinch hitter

WHL raids Bruins ranks for players

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The new World Hockey Association is continuing its raid on the National Hockey League, even dipping into the ranks of the NHL's retirees.

The NHL Boston Bruins, Stanley Cup champions at the end of the last season, were the hardest hit from the latest WHA raids. And the Bruins' Derek Sanderson is still dicker-ing with the WHA's Philadelphia Blazers.

WHA signings Thursday included Boston's Gerry Cheevers and Ted Green. Goalie Cheevers was signed by the WHA's Cleveland Crusaders while the New England Whalers landed Green.

Maurice "The Rocket" Richard, the retired star of the NHL's Montreal Canadiens, was hired as coach of the WHA's Quebec Les Nordiques.

The Oakland Tribune reported, meanwhile, that the Cleveland WHA entry had also signed Paul Shmyr, a defenseman with the NHL California Golden Seals. Cleveland did not confirm the report.

The Blazers announced the signings of 19 players, although Sanderson was not among the group. The fiery Bruin center has said he is considering a

HOME, SWEET HOME? Not in the major leagues, where the catcher's job is to try to make sure you can't go home again. ## Cowboys to meet All-Stars

CHICAGO (AP) — Nebraska's Bob Devaney will try to conjure his Cornhusker coaching magic, which produced two straight national collegiate titles, against the heavily-favored Dallas Cowboys in the 39th All-Star Football Game tonight.

The National Football League champion Cowboys, making their first start since their 24-3 Super Bowl conquest of the Miami Dolphins, are rated almost a three-touchdown favorite in the Soldier Field contest which will be televised nationally (ABC-TV at 9 p.m., EDT).

Devaney, first college head coach to direct the All-Stars since 1954, has a spirited collegiate squad, bulwarked with his entire Cornhusker coaching staff and a flock of 1971 Nebraska stars, headed by starting quarterback Jerry Tagge.

For the past three weeks, Devaney has conducted a no-nonsense camp at Northwestern and directed his hand-picked squad to impressive game-type scrimmage victories over the Chicago Bears and St. Louis Cardinals.

Coach Tom Landry of the Cowboys is wary about the fact that Devaney has not only one, but two of his own Cornhusker quarterbacks—Van Brownson is Tagge's backup—to run his Nebraska I formation.

That's the big advantage of this All-Star team," said Landry, adding the 17½-point Cowboy favoritism was typical in this Chicago Tribune Charities series. The pros have won eight straight, including last year's 24-17 triumph by the Baltimore Colts, and hold a 27-8-2 record.

"The pros should be favorites, but this should be an interesting game," said Landry.

Angels play Sunday

The Hope Angels will play Magnolia here Sunday at Legion Field with the first game beginning at 1:30 p.m. Hope will be aided by several graduating Legion players.

Spassky loses again

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — Bobby Fischer's chances of winning the world chess crown looked better and better today after soviet champion Boris Spassky conceded the eighth game in 37 moves. The score is now 5-3 in Fischer's favor, and he needs only 7½ more points to clinch the title. Spassky needs another 9 to retain it.

"Fischer is again showing the tremendous force that ruthlessly swept aside Mark Taimanov, Bent Larsen and Tigran Petrosian in previous matches," international grandmaster Isaac Kashdan said in an analysis of the match for The Associated Press.

"Based on this game," Kashdan concluded, "Spassky seems demoralized and unable to cope with the incisive accuracy of his opponent. Barring a complete reversal of form, Fischer's lead is likely to increase."

The ninth game is set for Sunday.

Some experts said Spassky played like a child on Thursday, and one, grandmaster Miguel Najdorf of Argentina, commented: "This is not championship chess."

Fischer's rooks pursued Spassky's king relentlessly. When the game ended after nearly four hours, the Russian's pawns were scattered hopelessly.

Fischer, playing the white pieces, advanced his Queen's bishop pawn—the English Opening—and by continual pressure deprived Spassky of any counterplay.

The American introduced a variation on the 11th move, and Spassky studied the board for nearly an hour before replying. He appeared safe for the time being, but on the 16th move he blundered with an exchange that cost him a rook to Fischer's bishop and pawn.

Spassky made one more error, "This time the kind of miscalculation that shouldn't happen to a grandmaster," Kashdan said. "His 19th move lost a pawn because of a double attack that is explained in all beginners' manuals."

In a few moves Fischer opened the lines for his rook, and Spassky's defeat was certain.

Maggie's back playing better than ever

CLEVELAND (AP) — Maggie's back, and where does that leave Crissy and Evonne?

"Margaret Court is playing better than ever and is far more relaxed than in 1970 when she won the Grand Slam," said Jim Entink, a top official of the Australian Lawn Tennis Association. "She is still probably the best woman player in the world."

Mrs. Court, winner of three Wimbledon and four U.S. titles before she took the last year off to have a baby, gets a chance to prove it today in the opening singles matches of the Bonne Bell Cup international competition between top players of the United States and Australia.

Her opening opponent is 17-year-old Chris Evert of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., who beat the tall, hard-hitting Australian veteran in their only meeting on clay in Charlotte, N.C., in late 1970. Crissy won in two sudden death sets.

"It may be different this time," said Jim Evert, Crissy's father and coach. "The surface is faster. Margaret will probably feel differently playing a 17-year-old instead of a 15-year-old. Besides, I've never seen Margaret play better than she is at the moment."

The draw for the best-of-7 series delayed until Sunday the touted rematch of Chris and 20-year-old Evonne Goolagong of Australia, who met for the first time earlier this month in a historic match at Wimbledon. Evonne pulled out the match after Chris led one set and 3-0 in the second but lost to Billie Jean King in the finals.

Billie Jean isn't competing here. Neither are such other Virginia Slims tour stars as Rosemary Casals and Nancy Richey Gunter. The Australians are here in force and are favored.

Ginzburg release Oct. 11

WASHINGTON (AP) — Editor-publisher Ralph Ginzburg and Carmine G. DeSapio, once an influential Democratic leader in New York, will ask the U.S. Board of Pardon today to release them from prison.

William A. B. Truitt, grandson of the late Vice President Alben W. Barkley, also goes before the eight-member board to seek his release after being sentenced two years ago for air piracy and kidnapping.

Ginzburg, 42, publisher of the short-lived quarterly Eros, was convicted nine years ago of sending obscene literature by mail. The literature included both the magazine and its promotional material.

The conviction was upheld by the Supreme Court and he began serving a three-year term in the Allenwood, Pa., institution last Feb. 17.

The board reviewed Ginzburg's petition for parole in April but postponed a decision until November. Then after receiving a medical report, which was not made public, the board decided to hold today's review.

DeSapio, 63, was convicted Dec. 13, 1970, in a U.S. District Court in New York of conspiracy to bribe former New York City Water Commissioner James L. Marcus and extract inflated contracts from the Consolidated Edison company.

The Democratic party boss was sentenced to two years in prison and fined $4,500. He began serving his term in the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., on June 26, 1971.

Truitt, 38, was sentenced to 20 years in prison after he was convicted Aug. 13, 1969, of hijacking a light plane to Cuba by threatening the pilot with an explosive device.

He began serving his term in the U.S. penitentiary in Atlanta on the same day he was convicted. The board scheduled today's hearing after receiving a medical report on his psychiatric condition.

Department expansion is slated

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Health Department plans to seek an expansion to the department building that was constructed here in 1968.

Dr. John A. Harrel Jr., who was named director of the department Thursday, asked the state Board of Health for approval of general plans for the construction. He said the proposal would be presented to the state Public Building Authority soon.

He said extra space was needed at the building because 11 new projects funded this year have added more than 50 employees. He said additional laboratory space was badly needed.

Harrel said tentative expansion plans were to add four floors to a two-story clinic building east of the department's office building, enclosing the end spaces on the fifth floor at the four corners of the building, and an addition on the south end of the building to house more laboratory space and the offices of two other agencies who would share the laboratory equipment.

—Mexico is divided into 32 political units: 29 states, the territories of Baja California-Sur and Quintana Roo and the Federal District.

Embargo on cattle announced by U.S. Agri Department

WASHINGTON (AP) — Livestock being moved from Texas, Oklahoma, Puerto Rico and parts of Arizona, California and New Mexico must be certified free of screwworms.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture announced the decision Thursday.

There has been an overwhelming invasion of screwworms from Mexico since January because of ideal temperatures and moisture, the department said.

The department's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service said the new regulatory action will be effective Saturday in attempts to prevent to spread of the screwworm, especially into Florida and other southeastern states where the fly can spend the winter.

The last area of infestation in the Southeast was Florida where it was eliminated in 1959. But the department said the Southeast is particularly vulnerable now because stockmen have stopped inspecting their animals for screwworm-infected wounds.

The new regulation will be in effect through Nov. 30, 1972, and from April 15 through Nov. 30 in subsequent years until the present invasion is overcome. All interstate animal shipments from the infested area must be inspected, treated if necessary, and certified free of screwworms 24 hours before shipping. In addition, livestock, except certain horses, moving from the infested area into or through Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina, and Tennessee must be sprayed or dipped with an approved pesticide before shipment.

The department said state and federal veterinarians, state and federal livestock inspectors and accredited veterinarians are authorized to make the necessary inspections, supervise pesticide applications and issue shipping certificates.

The regulated area includes the entire states of Texas and Oklahoma.

Also included are Cochise, Gila, Graham, Greenlee, Maricopa, Pima, Pinal, Santa Cruz, Yavapai and Yuma counties in Arizona. Also catron, Chaves, DeBaca, Dona Ana, Eddy, Grant, Hidalgo, Lea, Lincoln, Luna, Otero, Roosevelt, Sierra, and Socorro in New Mexico.

The department said record numbers of screwworm cases continue in the Southwest. To combat the unusual situation this year sterile fly production at the Mission, Tex., facility, was increased to full capacity this spring and is being maintained at this level.

CONVICTED OF MURDER

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Circuit Court jury deliberated 35 minutes Thursday and convicted Robert E. Baggett, 23, of Little Rock of first-degree murder and sentenced him to life in prison.

Baggett was convicted in the Aug. 10, 1971 strangulation of June B. Shillcutt, 62, owner of a Little Rock drug store.

MARY NELL WILLIAMS

DEGREE CANDIDATE—Mary Nell Williams of Hope will be a candidate for the B.S. degree in medical technology from Southern State College on August 5 at 8 p.m., Dr. L. A. Logan, vice president of academic affairs, has announced. Miss Williams, daughter of Ferrell Williams, is a 1968 graduate of Hope High School. She is a member of the Association of Women Students, Harrod Hall Dorm Council and has a minor in biology.

Senate defeats move to hack subsidies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has defeated a move to cut the maximum amount a farmer may be paid for limiting crops and an effort to halt price supports and other government subsidies for tobacco.

In a 45-22 vote Thursday, the Senate rejected an amendment to lower from $55,000 to $20,000 the maximum annual subsidy that may be paid to a farmer for limiting his crops.

Opponents of the amendment, offered by Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., said it would break faith with farmers.

Bayh said his amendment was designed "to limit subsidies to large corporate farmers—not to deny them to family farmers." He said 0.5 per cent of the producers now get 14 per cent of the subsidy payments, and he estimated his proposal would save the government about $150 million a year.

The Senate bill, which also covers environmental and consumer agencies, is about $670 million over the amount voted by the House.

APA makes statement concerning Eagleton

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Psychiatric Association, without direct reference to Sen. Thomas Eagleton, says the judgment of a person who suffered mental depression would be completely restored following recovery from the illness.

"During an episode of depression," the APA said in a special statement, "a person's judgment may be affected in proportion to the degree of severity of the depression."

"The distortion of judgment may vary from a slight coloration to a gross defect. Following recovery from the episode there is a full return of judgment."

It said "some depressions may recur and some do not; recurrence is not fully predictable."

The inquiries were motivated by disclosures earlier this week by Sen. Eagleton, the Democratic nominee for vice president, that he had been hospitalized and received psychiatric treatment on three occasions during the 1960s, and that on two of those occasions he had received electroshock treatment for depression.

"Electroshock," said the APA, "has been a highly effective treatment for moderate and severe depressions since it was introduced in 1938."

Defining depressions as being "essentially disorders of mood" — with many of them triggered "by stressful life experience" — the APA said there are three types:

—Mild: These "fall within the range of normal experience ... (and) are characterized by a tendency to feel discouraged, disheartened, irritable, tired, 'blue' ...."

—Moderate: These are marked by the same type of symptoms as the mild type "but carried to such a degree that they interfere with the victim's social and occupational adjustment .... There is a reluctance and resistance to assuming everyday responsibilities ...."

—Severe: These are characterized "by virtually a total withdrawal of interests by the victim in the world about him. Severe worry, anxiety, insomnia, and agitation are typically present, as is morbid preoccupation with feelings of

Play production is 'a miracle'

PALMYRA, N.Y. (AP) — From director to performers, they say they can't explain how it happens—except through God's help. The director, Dr. Harold I. Hansen, says he never talks about it to professional associates in the theater because they wouldn't believe him.

"They'd think I was insane," he says.

Nevertheless, in just one week, he takes a swarm of 600 raw, inexperienced volunteers, sizes them up individually, assigns them roles, rehearses them and then opens public performances of a vast, masterful religious drama that draws thousands from across the country.

This is the big-scale, quick-time artistic feat of the Mormon pageant, "America's Witness to Christ," which this week had its 35th annual production here on Hill Comorah, its freshly recruited cast also a bit awed at how it works.

"It's a miracle," says Howard Rush, 18, of Columbus, Ohio, a first-time performer who plays a royal courtier.

"The Lord lends a hand," says Clinton E. Lunt, 72, a retired Army lieutenant-colonel of Honolulu, who had never acted before. He plays a devout man who pleads in vain with a king to save a condemned prophet burned at the stake.

Hansen, 57, a white-haired drama professor at Brigham Young University, who specializes in Shakespeare and who recently directed a touring production of "Hello, Dolly!" for the Defense Department says various special factors contribute to, if not fully clarified, how the vast pageant here is put together so swiftly and effectively.

Cast members "don't see it as just performing but as personal commitment to religious concepts they believe in," he said in an interview. "I assure them, individually, that they'll be actively led. When they believe it when you say they can do it, that itself is a small miracle."

Beyond this, he added, there's help "from the 'Man Upstairs.'"

There's also the seasoned expertise of Hansen, who has run the production each summer for 35 years, plus the advance technological preparations of elaborate consoles controlling lighting effects, the three miles of precisely timed stereophonic sound, including dialogue, so that the performers have only to pantomime the scenes.

Aside from technical preparations, the whole job of casting, training the amateurs in gestures and movements, drilling them in mass action scenes, and coordinating the activity with sound and lights takes place in just seven days.

Hansen has each of the 600 cast members walk separately down a flight of stairs and across a stage, rating each for mannerisms of age, build, bearing, how the body moves, coding each trait and fitting the composite to various parts.

"Professional colleagues would never believe me but it works," he said.

As for its objective, he said: "It's evangelism. But you can't recruit converts in circumstances like these. It's to educate more than anything else. A lot of people don't even know Mormons believe in Jesus Christ."

MAN IS KILLED

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Police said that Earl Williams, 51, was shot to death Thursday at a Pine Bluff residence.

Police said Williams was shot in the face with a small caliber weapon.

Venezuela orders arms valued at $60 million

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. defense sources report Venezuela has ordered $60 million worth of arms from France in a deal described as the largest single Latin American purchase of ground weapons since World War II.

The deal underscores France's growing dominance as arms supplier to Latin American nations at a time when Congress has sharply restricted U.S. military aid and arms sales to that region.

Pentagon figures show that Latin American countries bought at least $900 million in arms from countries other than the United States in fiscal 1970 and 1971. An estimated two-thirds of this business went to France, the rest principally to Britain and Italy.

In the same two-year period, American arms sales to Latin American republics totaled $130 million.

According to defense sources, the Venezuelans have ordered 142 French AMX30 medium-size tanks for delivery this year and next, plus more than 20 self-propelled 155mm howitzers.

Brazil, Colombia, Argentina and other countries in that region are said to be customers for fast French Mirage jet fighters, British-built naval frigates, Italian artillery and other modern weapons to replace largely outdated U.S.-supplied arms, much of it World War II vintage.

In limiting U.S. arms aid and sales to Latin America, Congress aimed to discourage countries there from spending on weapons instead of alleviating poverty, illiteracy and other critical social and economic problems.

U.S. defense officials say this has turned Latin American military leaders to other weapons sources, principally France.

One result is that the Latin American armed forces, perhaps motivated by a desire for prestige, are buying equipment which U.S. military experts consider more sophisticated than those nations need.

U.S. arms credit is granted currently at 6 per cent interest, and may be extended for not longer than 10 years.

The French, on the other hand, are said to offer the Latin Americans terms as low as 20-year loans at 2 per cent interest and also to train Latin American pilots for free, as well as providing other low-cost or free services.

It is possible, U.S. officials say, for Latin American countries to buy directly from U.S. contractors.

However, it is reported that U.S. banks will lend money for these purchases only if they are protected by U.S. government guarantees, and the interest rates run up to 8 per cent.

'Disney Parade' to go to Europe

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Next Friday Disney on Parade makes its first invasion of Europe, and the show's backers have every confidence that it will duplicate its conquest of the arena market in North America and Australia.

Next month Disney on Parade will be appearing in three major world cities: London, New York and Mexico City. The expected gross from the three troupes in those cities: $3 million.

The London premiere Friday marks another phase of an amazing success story. Ringling Bros.-Barnum and Bailey Circus has been in business over a century. The ice-skating shows have been playing the country for three decades or more. Within three years, Disney on Parade has achieved the same kind of acceptance and is earning comparable sums at the box offices.

Disney on Parade is a partnership between NBC, which produces and operates the show, and the Disney company, which maintains creative control. Disney was at first reluctant to go along. It did so at NBC's urging.

The Disney concern seemed warranted when the first edition of Disney on Parade opened in Chicago in December 1969. Business was below expectations, and the production was beset with operational problems. The tide turned in Pittsburgh, and the show has been successful ever since. The returns: $28 million in 158 cities.

"The first couple of dates were difficult," explains Jack Sidney, the man who books Disney on Parade around the world. "There were union problems, and the whole show was too heavy."

"But once we got to Pittsburgh, everything fell into place."

Sidney, 58, is a battle-hardened veteran of the arena business, having traveled with the ice shows—"name any American city and I can tell you the size and layout of the stadium." Now he's learning about arenas elsewhere in the world.

He expects Disney on Parade to continue to grow. Ultimately there may be six editions, each to have a two-year run. Two would tour North America, two in Europe, one in the Far East and one in South America.

The show themes borrow from the Disney cartoons. Sidney was asked if Disney on Parade might some day run out of material.

"I don't think so," he said. "There is enough in the Disney archives for 10 shows, and we can make variations of each one by revising. Besides, we have a new audience every three years."

"What we're selling is the Disney magic. That's something that is known everywhere, by everyone."

Girls who borrow a cigarette from you and then wait for you to light it for them, too.

Girls who won't lend a man money—unless he takes them out to lunch with it.

Management morale messages on the office bulletin board intended to keep the staff from lapsing into the summer doldrums.

Post cards from executives letting their subordinates know what a wonderful time they're having on their vacation.

Spoiled milk in the refrigerator and a plate of cold meats turning sour.

Announcement of new weapon systems that cost more apiece than it used to take to run the government for a year.
